JUDSON URGES HARD ROADS HERE

EXPLAINS THAT NODAWAY OUGHT "ACT QUICKLY" TO GET BENEFIT

FOLKER MAKES A TALK

Assistant Farm Agent Leader From Columbia Asks for Closer Co-Operation of Farmers—Points Out Advantages of a Leader.

H. D. Judson, of St. Joseph, Divisional Engineer of the State Highway Commission, urged that Nodaway County take advantage of the Federal aid in the building of hard roads, in an address following the dinner in his honor at the First M. E. church last night. The affair was held under the auspices of the Commercial club, and in addition to the "hard roads" address by Mr. Judson, A. D. Folker, of Columbia, Assistant Farm Agent Leader for northwest Missouri, made a talk in support of the plan and for the betterment of the agricultural conditions of this county.

Mr. Judson explained in brief direct manner the idea of the Federal road aid. He state that the Federal government has guaranteed to "match" the amount of funds raised in counties of the state for the building of roads up to a certain figure, and that the counties which act quickly on this project and get in on the "ground floor" of the appropriation, will be afforded the best opportunity to get their full allotment of the government funds. He recommended that Nodaway county take up at once the matter of constructing two hard roads which would be placed due north and south, and one east and west through the county, explaining that such highways would come under both the state road and the federal road appropriations. Mr. Judson explained that for every mile of such state roads, $1200 is appropriated by the State of Missouri. In addition to this, the government would allow half the expense of the remaining cost, making the amount to be paid by the residents of the county $1200 minus the 50 per cent of the cost of the improvement.

Mr. Judson recommended that two million dollars be raised in this county through road bond issues for the project, and explained that according to a rough estimate, the improvement would cost approximately 31.5 cents for every acre in the county. He estimated that between 40 and 50 million dollars would be raised in Missouri during the coming year for road construction purposes, and urged upon his hearers that necessity for quick action before the sum set aside by the government for this State is taken up by other counties.

Mr. Judson dwelt strongly on the idea of the constructing the two state-Federal roads and explained that although the highways would really pass only a small percentage of the farms of the county, they would be beneficial to all in a general way.

Following his talk, Mr. Judson called for questions on the matter, and a general "round table" discussion was held in which the project was gone over from various angles.

The various angles of cost, material be suited to the needs here, and etc.

The question brought out last night was in regard to how the money was to be raised for such a project. Mr. Judson suggested several plans, among them being the issuance of road bonds by the separate townships, and another by popular subscription, similar to the Red Cross and Liberty Loan drives. He explained that in Daviess county the latter method has been employed and that the farmers there have shown their interest for the project by giving strong support in a financial way.

Chairman H. L. Raines called for a motion on the matter of taking definite steps to raise the money, but no definite proposals were made and the matter was left to some future time.

Mr. Folker, who was in Maryville yesterday for the purpose of discussing with the executive committee of the Nodaway county Farm Bureau the selection of a County Leader, gave a short address following the talk by Mr. Judson.

Mr. Folker did not take any special subject for his address but told of the importance of the farmer in the business of the country today. "The Soil is the Foundation of Wealth," he said, He [illegible] that the farm is just as much a business institution as a factory, and that the same business methods should be employed in the former as in the latter. Mr. Folker urged co-operation among the farmers and showed that through a closer co-operation the farmer benefits both himself and his neighbor.

"Nodaway county is one of the richest agricultural counties in the great state of Missouri," he said "and although the rich lands here are making wonderful yields, co-operation and agricultural extension work will bring the standard to even a higher basis.

He urged that a County Leader be appointed here to look after the work in the same manner as a manager looks after the efficiency and newer ideas in a great business house. "He showed that fertility of the soil is the basis of the land value, and brought out that the time is coming when the value of the land here in Missouri will be measured by the actual fertility of the soil, as is now the case in the farms of the eastern states. A Farm Leader would look after this and a great variety of other things he said and urged that such a man be appointed at once.

BAD WEATHER HOLDS UP FARM BUREAU MEETING

A. D. Folker, County Farm Agent Leader, Roy Lippman and Gerald Evans Only Attendants at Session—Postpone Action.

Definite action in the matter of selecting a County Farm Leader for Nodaway County was postponed until a later meeting yesterday afternoon at the session of the executive committee of the County Farm Bureau held under the direction of A. D. Folker at the Commercial Club Rooms.

The rain and bad condition of the roads made it impossible for many of the farmers who are members of the committee to get into town, and besides Mr. Folker, Roy Lippman and Gerald Evans were the only representatives of that body present. The three men held a short discussion concerning the matter of selecting a farm leader, but took no definite steps.

Mr. Folker stated last night that a meeting would probably be held sometime during the latter part of this month to make a decision in the matter.

CHARGE LOOSE BUSINESS METHODS AT WARRENSBURG

State Examiner Criticises George E. Hoover, Registrar, for Alleged Lax Accounting System.

Jefferson City, June 14.—Sharp criticism of alleged loose business methods of keeping accounts of the State Normal School at Warrensburg are carried in a report filed in the office of State Auditor Hackman by Herman Goeschel, one of Hackman's special examiners.

The criticism is directed at George E. Hoover, registrar of the school. Goeschel says officially that there is a practical absence of bookkeeping at the Normal school for the year 1918.

This, too, he says, in face of the fact that building operations and purchase of equipment and other expenditures involved large sums of money.

Goeschel charges no wrong-doing on the part of Hoover. He simply dwells upon the lack of keeping accounts at the institution.

It is a difficult matter to conduct an audit of the school because of this, Goeschel says. He declares he called Hoover's attention to the matter and was told that Hoover was too busy with other duties to keep the accounts as they should be kept.

In his report Goeschel says:

"We have made many reports and found some records in bad condition, but this institution is one among all that has shown no improvement."

The Board of Regents is aware of the conditions existing he says, and the secretary of that body, W. H. Bradley, when attention was directed to it said he knew everything was all right.

The records of the normal school at Warrensburg, Goeschel insists in his report, are not kept as the law requires.

BANQUET FOR ALL SERVICE MEN

THE YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS OF FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO BE THE HOST

EXPECT 200 TO BE THERE

A Fine Program Has Been Arranged and Elaborate Preparations Made Class to Reorganize.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the First Christian church is making elaborate preparations for the banquet to be given in honor of all returned soldiers and sailors in Polk township at the church next Tuesday evening, June 17, at 7:30 o'clock.

Invitations have been mailed out to over 200 returned soldiers and sailors. It is possible that the committee has overlooked some to whom invitations would be mailed if their names and addresses were known and the committee wishes to announce that men that have been in military service are invited to attend the banquet.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the First Christian church is planning to reorganize the class on June 22 with, at least, seventy-five charter members. It is hoped that 125 or 150 young men will be brought into the class and an organization is to be perfected which will present matters of special interest to young men every Sunday at Electric Theater building. The banquet on next Tuesday night is only one of the many things that are being incorporated into the aims of the class.

The program for the banquet Tuesday night is as follows:

SKIDMORE THE SCENE OF A TWISTER

No Damage Done Because Cloud, When Low, Passed Over Open Fields.—Rain and Hail Accompanied the Storm.

For the trird time within the past few months a tornado has visited the county, this time striking the territory lying two miles west of Skidmore. The typical funnel shaped cloud made its appearance yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock in that vicinity, coming from the southwest. In all it came down three times but very fortunately striking open fields on each of these three occasions. The cloud was said to be of perfect formation and was witnessed by many people in the vicinity of Skidmore with much fascination. As the twister wore itself out much rain and hail fell, doing considerable damage to the wheat and bluegrass in that section. No other towns in that part of the county were visited by the storm, although heavy rains fell in certain sections

IMPORTANT ACTION AT CHURCH MEET

REV. R. E. SNODGRASS AND G. B. ROSEBERRY RETURN FROM CARTHAGE CONVENTION

SNODGRASS V. PRESIDENT

Local Men Elected to Office in State Ministerial Association.—Well Known Speakers Present.

Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor of the Christian church, and G. B. Roseberry returned last night from Carthage, Mo., where they attended the annual convention of the State Missionary Society of the Christian church of Missouri.

The meeting was one of the most important in the history of the organization and three resolutions of nation-wide importance were passed at the meet. The first action of the session was the drafting of a resolution requesting President Wilson to refrain from action to repeal the war time prohibition measure. This resolution was signed by all the delegates and was sent to Washington.

A resolution was also adopted sanctioning the League of Nations.

The third important action of the meeting was the making of preliminary plans for the raising of a two million dollar budget to finance the six educational institutions of the church in this state.

The campaign will be started this fall and each of the seven districts will be apportioned a certain definite quota in the drive.

Among the prominent speakers who occupied places on the program were Stephen J. Corey, D. D., of Cincinnati, Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society, who told of the foreign missionary work in the world reconstruction. Dr. H. O. Prichard, former president of Eureka College in Illinois, who spoke on education and the world reconstruction, and Dr. Peter Ainslee of Baltimore, Md., who spoke on the "Christian Unity."

Dr. Ainslee, is the president of the association, for the promotion of Christian unity, and is one of the pioneers of the movement to unite all churches of the Christian faith.

He told of the movement which is now on foot for a closer co-operation between the churches of the world, and of the coming convention to be held sometime within the next year.

Dr. Ainslee told the convention that the Catholic church had been invited to send representatives to this meeting but that Rome had declined the invitation.

At the Missouri Ministerial Association meeting, held in connection with the convention, W. G. Alcorn of Albany, was elected president for the ensuing year, and Rev. Snodgrass of this city, vice president.

The next annual convention of the State Missionary Society will be held at Marshall, Mo., the date to be set later.

STATE'S TEACHERS GOING ELSEWHERE

MUCH HIGHER SALARIES TAKE MISSOURI TEACHERS TO OTHER STATES

BEST QUALIFIED LEAVING

State College Recommendation Committees Unanimously Testify of General Exodus of Graduates.

Teachers trained in Missouri schools are leaving the state in great numbers for other states and , if teachers salaries are not increased soon, the better teachers of the state will soon be gone. Other states are offering salaries that are attractive and consequently getting the cream of the teachers of the state. Such is the conclusion to be drawn from investigations which have been conducted by people who are in a position to know. Recently the Evening Missourian, Columbia, Mo., sent out a questionnaire to the Teachers Colleges of Missouri, asking the following questions: (I) Do you believe that many teachers are leaving Missouri for better salaries paid in other states? (2) If so, are the more highly qualified leaving? (3) Which states are attracting teachers from your section of the state, and about what percentage of increase do they offer above Missouri salaries?

C. A. Hawkins, chairman of committee on recommendations Maryville State Teachers College expresses the opinion of all in saying, "Yes, I am very positive of it."

"I do not only believe it, I know it to be true," said C. H. McClure of the Warrensburg committee. "I am having calls every day from other states at much larger salaries than Missouri officials are offering. Of the teachers that we have located and know their location, 31 per cent were located outside of the state."

W. W. Martin of the Cape Girardeau committee says in part—"If the present condition continues, there will be in the future just as rapid an exodus of our best teachers to the other states as positions can be found for them."

"Our records show that 15 per cent of all the teachers, placed by our bureau, have gone out of the state, Oklahoma and Kansas take most of them because of 30 per cent better salaries paid there" is the statement of John H. Boyd, chairman of the committee of the Southwest Teachers College at Springfield.

The above testimony is not all that might be cited but it is sufficient to indicate the trend of things. Missouri spends thousands of dollars annually to support institutions which train teachers who practice their profession in other states. No blame can be attached to teachers for such for they can command salaries from 20 to 30 per cent higher elsewhere. The sad part of the whole thing is that Missouri has more wealth and is better able to pay the salaries than the states which offer them.

Iowa recently passed a minimum salary law for teachers which in part rules, that all graduates of colleges, universities and normal schools who have taken professional work cannot be paid less than $100.00 per month for their services and with two years experience they must be paid $120.00 per month. In other words for every years experience and training the minimum salary which they can be hired at by schools is fixed and the minimum that has been fixed is far in excess of salaries paid in Missouri. This is only one of many states that get teachers who are trained in Missouri Institutions. It is imperative for the good of Missouri schools that this state of affairs be remedied.

A MONARCHIAL REVOLT THREATENING IN BERLIN

Soldiers Parade Streets Waving Imperial Flags and Carrying Portrait of Kaiser.

Copenhagen, June 14.—The initial demonstration of the threatening monarchial revolt in Berlin took place today when crowds of army officers and men thronged the streets waving flags, and cheering, according to dispatches here today.

The Imperial banner was raised during the parade and the portrait of the kaiser was carried aloft.

The German newspaper Vorwaerts says, "It is the first fight with the police and is the signal for a monarchial revolt."

AND NOW THEY SAY PIGS LOST THE WAR FOR 'EM

Danish Vegetarian Says the Porkers Were the Real Cause of the Downfall of the Fatherland.

London. —(By Mail).— Ludendorff maintains it was the revolutionary spirit of the German soldiers that caused Germany's defeat, Admiral Beatty says it was the British navy, General Pershing thinks it was the American army, while armchair strategists declare it was Foch's great offensive.

But, really, Germany was defeated because she had too many pigs, says Doctor M. Hindhede, the distinguished Danish vegetarian.

The German pig betrayed the Fatherland and contributed more to the down fall of Germany than the Allies' blockade.

At the outbreak of war, the food situation was more serious in Denmark than in Germany. Denmark, however, reduced the number of her pigs and cattle, thereby restricting the consumption of cereals in the country.

Germany, on the other hand [illegible] of reducing the number of her pigs and cattle forbade the slaughtering of cattle under seven years old, and of pigs less thana sixty kilos in weight. No restrictions were put on feeding them with cereals.

By the spring of 1915 there was scarcely a potato left in Germany.

So Germany starved while Denmark throve, and the pigs that were intended to save the Fatherland ate the food so urgently needed by her populationo.

That is why Germany lost the war.

Rooster Selling Contest.

Perryville merchants are conducting a Rooster Selling Contest as one of the features of the drive to secure infertile eggs. A cash prize of $5.00 is being offered to the person who brings in the largest number of roosters during the Rooster Week. "Every bunch of roosters will be carefully counted," says Alfred Raut, County Agent of Perry County; but he adds significantly, "No questions will be asked." Lively competition is likely to develop between the various ladies aid societies of the county to see which can round up the biggest load of roosters to compete for the prize. The indications are that country ministers who have been in the habit of expecting rooster for dinner on their visit to country church members will have to be satisfied with sausage or ham after this drive is finished.

"BIG FOUR" DENIES HUN DISCUSSION

ALLIES FLATLY REFSE TO ARBITRATE WITH GERMANS ON TERMS

WILSON UPHOLDS STAND

President Declares That as the Germans Were the Instigators of War They Must Abide by Penalties.

Paris, June 14.—Proposals that the Germans be permitted to discuss the peace terms with the Allied representatives were flatly denied at th meting of th "Big Four" today.

President Wilson and other members of the "Big Four" declared that as a complete agreement had been reached by the Allies there was no use for further bargaining by the Germans.

The president declared on the part of the United States that the terms are just, and as the Germans were the instigators of the war they should be forced to abide by the consequences.

With the bargaining on the terms finished by the Allies, President Wilson is of the opinion that the Germans must either accept or reject the treaty as it stands.

If it is rejected they must suffer the drastic action of the Allied powers.

TO DISCUSS REHABITATION OF TUBERCULAR CIVILIANS

100,000 Men Rejected From Service Because of Trace of the Disease.

Atlantic City, June 14.—With draft board records showing that nearly 100,000 men were rejected for the army because of suspected tuberculosis, the rehabitation of civilians disabled by the disease will be discussed here next Monday by Douglas C. McMurtie, director of the Red Cross Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men, before the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The programme of the Federal Board for Vocational Education will be discussed by Dr. H. A. Pattison, while some of the results gained by use of occupational therapy and prevocational training among tuberculous men in the army will be reported by Captain S. M. North, chief of the reconstruction service, at General Hospital No. 19, Oteen, N. C.

The responsibility which the Government has assured with regard to the discharged tuberculous soldier and what Uncle Sam proposes to do for these patients, will be outlined by William C. Baldwin, Washington.

A feature of tomorrow's programme will be an address on the growth of the modern health crusade in this country during the war years by Charles M. DeForest, national crusader executive. Under the banner of this crusade more than 3,000,000 school children have been enlisted in health chivalry.

$20,000 WORTH OF BOOZE TO STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Justice C. W. Stuart of Clarinda has certified to the County Clerk George Anderson the amount of booze now in the county jail, in charge of Sheriff Pennington. The total amount which Justice Stuart has condemned since the first of the year amounts to 5322 pints. The County Clerk will now notify the State Board of Control in Des Moines in accordance with the law passed last winter by the State legislature which makes the State Board of Control the custodian of such liquor, with the object in view of supplying the state institutions with such liquor as they need for medical purposes. The whiskey is now locked inside a cell at the Page County jail.

5322 pints of whiskey, at $4 a pint would make $21,288 worth of whiskey confisticated by the state. It would sell for $4 a pint in Omaha, where the men who originally had the booze intended to take it. But whether on the market it is worth that much is something we are unable to determine. —Clarinda Herald.

PROPAGANDISTS IN MEXICO ARE AFTER CARRANZA.

Laredo, Texas, June 13.—According to information given out by an American business man just returned from a tour of various cities of Mexico, that country is now in a very perturbed state and there is much unrest manifested in such cities as Mexico City, Vera Cruz, Guadalajara, Queretero and Torreon, where the revolutionary movement is gradually gaining ground. Propagandists against the Carranza government are said to be working diligently to create sympathy for the revolutionary cause among Federal troops, and the effect has been that there have been many deflections from the Carranza army to that of Felix Diaz. It is said that secret meetings are being held in various portions of Mexico almost nightly, and under some clever camouflage the "junta" managers manage to keep the Mexican government in ignorance of their clandestine workings Felix Diaz, who has beenunsatisfied ever since the overthrow of the Porfirio Diaz Government by Madero, is still the acknowledged leader of the Mexican revolutionists and he is said to be gaining converts to his cause slowly but surely. While Pancho Villa and his forces are menacing the northern portion of Mexico and terrorizing the inhabitants, the Diaz forces, operating in Central Mexico and even in the capital, it is said, are quietly spreading their propaganda and strengthening the revolutionary cause.

KISSES 11 MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY AT EACH MEAL.

San Francisco, June 13.—Kissing and its relation to general family contentment was the subject of a symposiac discussion before Superior Judge Shortall during the hearing of Mrs. Isabel Dugan's divorce action against Herbert F. Dugan, manufacturing chemist.

Miss Adele Dugan, sister of the defendant, testified that her sister-in-law was extremely jealous of kisses bestowed on Miss Dugan by the latter's brother each evening when he came home.

"Isn't that a good way to treat a sister," asked Judge Shortall.

Thomas Dozier, attorney for Mrs. Dugan, said: "I myself prefer the kiss of my wife to wine before dinner."

This drew from Lucius Solomon, attorney for Dugan, the remark:

"There are eleven females in my family. Before sitting down to the supper table I make the rounds. And the meal tastes better."

EGGS HAVE WAIST LINES.

Los Angeles, June 11.—Eggs are wearing waist lines this summer! Old hens are getting classy in the matter of style.

Mrs. F. S. Evans, of No. 1411 Woodside avenue, Graham, partly proved this by bringing to the Chamber of Commerce here an egg with a perfect belt around the middle of its shell The belt was drawn slightly in, but was without a buckle. The old Rhode Island hen that laid the egg first started her novelties by producing eggs with two yolks.

YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG

(By Wilbur D. Nesbit.)

Your flag and my flag!
And how it flies today
In your land and my land
And half a world away!
Rose red and blood red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow white and soul white—
The good forefather's dream.
Sky blue and true blue, with stars to gleam aright—
The glorious guidon by day; a shelter through the night.
Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat,
And fifers shrilly pipe.
Your flag and my flag—
A blessing in the sky—
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie.
Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old Glory bears our glad salute and ripples to the sound.
Your flag and my flag.
And, oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun kissed and wind tossed—
Red and blue and white,
The one flag, the great flag, the flag for me and you,
Glorifies all else beside—the red and white and blue!

"The Boy Scouts have done a most wonderful work in assisting the government and city of St. Louis in all movements having for their object the winning of the world war. In addition they have rendered invaluable assistance in a civic way for many years.

"We should give every encouragement to these boys and assist them in every way possible to build up and strengthen their organization. The St. Louis campaign for additional members will be a three-day one beginning on June 10 and ending on June 12.

"I trust that every citizen will aid in this movement which has as its object the organizing, training and disciplng of the boyhood of the United States."

The New School Legislation

County Superintendent of Schools Bert Cooper has received the following letter explaining the high spots of the school legislation enacted at the recent 50th General Assembly. All of the important measures are touched upon.

Senate Bill No. 338, provides for an increase in salary of 50 per cent for County Superintendents throughout the State of Missouri. This bill was signed by the Governor on March 28, and carried an emergency clause, therefore it was in effect at the time of the election of the County Superintendents on April 1.

Senate Bill No. 599. Passed and signed at the same time as No. 324. This bill affects St. Louis County only, and fixes the salary of the County Superintendent there at $4,000 per year.

Senate Bill No. 17. This is the new Compulsory Attendance Law. It provides that every child between the ages of seven and fourteen shall attend school regularly for the entire term, and between the ages of fourteen and sixteen they must attend unless actually and regularly and lawfully engaged for at least six hours each day in some useful employment or service. As a means of enforcement, this law provides for a County Attendance Officer being selected by the County Superintendent of Schools, placed under a bond of $1,000 and being paid a salary not to exceed $4.00 per day for each day actually engaged in the discharge of his duties and his actual expenses incurred. This Attendance Officer is appointed for the entire county and has authority to arrest and place in school, children who are not in attendance. He may bring action against the parent or guardian in any court of competent jurisprudence. Only children mentally or physically incapacitated or who have completed the common school course and received certificates of graduation are exempt. Teachers shall report non-attendance direct to the County Superintendent. Boards of education in towns and cities may employ separate School Attendance Officers and pay them from funds of the district; otherwise the County Attendance Officer will act in these districts.

This is considered one of the best compulsory attendance laws in any of the states, and we see no reason why this should not greatly increase the attendance in the State, as it is made the duty of the State Department of Education and of all school officials as well, to enforce this law.

Senate Bill No. 335 provides for the apportionment of school funds upon the basis of the previous year's attendance in case of an epidemic, such as has existed this year. Instructions are going forward to county clerks and county superintendents as to the method of carrying out the provisions of this law.

House Bill No. 370, provides the necessary appropriation for carrying out the Smith-Hughes Act, establishing Vocational schools.

House Bill No. 571, provides for part time schools to be established in any districts in the State wherein there shall be issued and in full force and effect not less than twenty-five employment certificates for children under sixteen years of age. This bill provides that such children shall attend these part time classes for not less than four hours per week for so long as the schools are regularly in session in such districts. When such schaals shall have met the standards of the Federal Act and the standard established by the State Board for Vocational Education, they shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the Federal funds available under the provisions of the Federal Act. The Compulsory Attendance Law applies to part time schools.

Senate Bill No. 398, provides for the inspection and approval by the State University of certain colleges of liberal arts and other colleges including junior colleges and colleges preparatory to any college or any junior college and provides further, that the preparatory department may appeal to the State Department of Education in cases where the State University refuses to approve.

House Bill No. 55, provides for the supervision of the work of instruction in certain State Institutions by the State Superintendent of Public Schools

Senate Bill No. 449, provides for the legal creation of the existing Negro Industrial Commission.

House Bill No. 414 permits the State Superintendent of Schools to pay to the Teacher-Trainnig Inspector in the State Department a maximum salary not to exceed $2,500 per year.

House Bill No. 391 amends Section 10797, Revised School Laws, pertaining to tax levy for erecting school houses by adding the following provision, namely, "when the proposition to be voted on refers only to repair or furnishing, or both repairs and furnishing such school building, the proposition shall be deemed to have been carried at the election if a majority of votes cast are cast in favor of the proposition."

Senate Bills Nos. 378 and 482, provide for the payment of tuition for children attending high school outside of the district in which they reside, in certain counties having a population of eighty thousand or more, and two hundred and fifty thousand or more respectively.

House Bill No. 1009, provides for an appeal from the decision of the County Superintendent to the Judge of the Circuit Court in cases of revoking certificates.

House Bill No. 48, provides for establishing schools in any school district, under certain conditions, for children who are blind, deaf, crippled or feeble-minded.

Joint and Concurrent Resolution No. 18, provides for the submission of a constitutional amendment at the next general election, allowing rural districts to vote $1.00 for school purposes on precisely the same conditions that cities may now vote $1.00.

Under the provisions of House Bill No. 1071, the general apportionment bill, the State Department of Education was given additional help in the way of two Rural School Inspectors, and an addition to the clerical force. This, we feel, will be of material assistance to us in carrying out the work of this department.

Below are a number of bills pertaining to education, which failed of passage:

House Bill No. 337, providing for raising the qualifications of county superintendents of schools.

Senate Bill No. 713, providing for free text books for all schools of the State.

Senate Bills Nos. 70 and 288, requiring that all instruction in the elementary schools be given in the English languarge.

House Bill No. 807, raising the maximum salaries and valuation in rural districts applying for State Aid. The State Aid Law remains as it was before the Legislature met.

Senate Bill No. 480. This bill amended Section 10944, by making definite the disposition of any balance from examination fees, etc., remaining in the hands of county superintendents afte the payment of expenses of teachers' association, teachers' meetings, etc.

Senate Bill No. 640, provides for the establishment of a system of physical education and hygiene throughout the State.

House Bill No. 871. This bill provides for the County Unit System of administration throughout the State. It excited a great deal of interest and was endorsed by the Educational Committees of both Houses, and for a time seemed sure of passage. However it was a rather radical departure from the old order of things, and some of the members became scared, evidently for this reason alone. This bill should easily be put through the next legislature.

Senate Pill No. 690 empowered the Board of Education in school districts having a popuation of twenty-five thou sand inhabitants or more, to require a physical and mental examination of all children attending the public schools.

In addition to the above mentioned bills, a bill requiring common school districts to pay high school tuition where no high school is provided in their district, failed of passage, as did a bill empowering Boards of Education of a city or town to elect a superintendent for a term of years.

Nothwithstanding the fact that some of the best bills, as we see them, failed of passage, yet we feel gratified with the results secured. Perhaps more real progressive school legislation has been enacted by this General Assembly than by any previous session of recent years.

THREE CLAIM THE GIRL WHO IS WITHOUT A HOME

Rock Island, Ill., June 13—Who should receive the custody of pretty Miss Carmela Agnes Pines, aged fourteen years—her father, grandfather or stepfather?

This question is puzzling a judge of the circuit court here.

All three claim the girl and have filed suits to support the claim.

The case is a singular one. Mr. Pines was divorced from his wife, who was given the custody of the child and later remarried. She died recently. The stepfather sought the guardianship of the girl, but this was denied on the modification of the divorce decree granted her father. Then the grandparents on the mother's side stepped in and also wanted the child. It developed into a wrangle in many courts of Cook county, Ill., and Des Moines, Iowa, being finally brought here.

The case is expected to be taken to the supreme court of the state and possibly to the United States Supreme Court.

Capt. Will Wallis Has Landed.

Captain Will Wallis, Jr., arrived at Camp Hill, Va., yesterday from France, according to word received by his brother, Dr. F. C. Wallis, last evening. He is expected to go to Camp Grant, where he will receive his discharge.

HOW WOULD YOU—A GIRL—ANSWER THIS MAN?

If you were a girl and the man you loved and trusted had wronged you and you had gone through the tortures of believing you had taken vengence into your own hands—and then he came back not to ask forgiveness but to plead for an opportunity to prove that his love was true and real—what would you do?

Rose Peters asks herself this question after trials such as these in "From Headquarters," the Vitagraph feature which will be seen in the Electric Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. It is the greatest police story ever told, and Anita Stewart, as Rose, has the greatest emotional role in her screen career.

MISSOURI UNIVERSITY SHORT COURSE IN ARICULTURE

It is expected that there will be a very large enrollment in the Two Year Winter Course this year, and plans are being made to make the course this year stronger than it has been in the past, according to E. H. Hughes, Superintendent of the Short Course. Many who would have entered the past two years are deciding to come this fall. Still others who have taken part of the work will return to complete the course.

Students who have taken work in the Short Course are very enthusiastic about it. Few people in Missouri realize what the Short Course is and what it means to have men from their community take up this work.

The Two-year Winter Course was organized at the University of Missouri in 1895. At that time there were but few students enrolled and Dean Mumford was the only instructor. The course has been changed considerably since that time until now it covers a period of two winters beginning on or about November First and closing on or before March First. Practically all the Experiment Station staff are instructors in the Short course and it becomes necessary at times to have additional instructors during the time the Short Course students are here.

Some of the subjects that are taught in the Short Course are live stock production, fertilization of soils, production of pure bred seed, farm machinery with special emphasis on gas engines and tractors, dairy manufacturing, production of high class milk, vegetable gardening, various courses in horticulture rural economics, banking and agricultural law. These are only a few of the many things that are taught Short Course men and women.

During the fall there is a Short Course in Home Economics given for those students who are interested in learning more about present day millinery, clothing problems, cooking, home decoration, etc.

After Christmas is a special course given in Dairy Manufacturing. Students taking this course become creamery operators, managers of milk distributing plants, ice cream manufacturers, etc.

PREVENTING AUTO ACCIDENTS

St. Louis, June 14.—An outline of how the recently organized Automobile Vigilance Division of the Safety Council of St. Louis is progressing in its work to reduce the number of preventable accidents is given by Edward G. Marsh, secretary of the Complaint Board and also secretary of the vigilance body.

The vigilantes have caused 100 complaints of reckless or careless driving by motor car drivers to be investigated since April 1 and in no instance has a second complaint against the same party been received. Marsh specifies this fact as proof that the work of the organization is effective. The policy is not to prosecute each driver of a car who inadvertantly may violate legal regulations, but rather, to make a personal appeal to obtain the desired result.

LOT'S TROUBLES STARTED AS HE ENTERED POLITICS

St. Louis, June 10.—The troubles of Lot, of Biblical fame, began when he went into politics, according to Herbert Hoover Smith, pastor of Emanuel Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, speaking before the Salesmanship Club here.

"Lot's first misstep came when he moved into the Cabanne district of Sodom and Mrs. Lot started to get her picture in the Sunday papers," he said. "Someone then told Lot he could be elected alderman and that proved the beginning of the end for that family.

"Mrs Lot became so enamored of the people of Sodom that she could not leave the city without the delay of several lingering parting glances. The result you know."

YANKS GIVE YORK HERO THE "RAZ"—LATER SORRY

When "War's Greatest Hero" Brought in 132 Captives, His Buddies Tried to "kid" Him.

Pittsburgh, June 14.—How Sergeant Alvin C. York, the greatest hero in the A. E. F., was "razberried" by other men in his division when he brought in his 132 captive Germans, which he had taken single handed, was told here by two men who were in York's unit.

The Tennessean and his prisoners ran into the kitchen police first.

"Say, Sarge, ain't you afraid them Heinies will git away?" was the first shot directed at York by the hecklers.

"Nope, reckon not," was the reply.

"How come? They's a posel of wessels there. Might run off an' leave you."

"They did try to do that an' fourteen of them got killed or they'd be more."

"Yeh. I guess you did bump off four teen. You ketched 'em all yourself, I suppose?" put in an incredulous cook.

"Yep," came back York.

"Wow. Say Jerry, listen to this. This guy ketched all them Boches by himself. Great kid, eh?"

The loafing soldiers then clustered around York.

"Where's the Kaiser?" asked one. "You ain't much good in bringing in all them common bums. Why'n't you git a couple of good ones while you're at it?"

"You better gittouta here," said another. "You'll catch hell for being A. W. O. L. That's no way to act—trying to get back to the rear with them prisoners. Where's their guard?"

York began to get mad.

"Say, give them something to eat, will you? An' I'll take 'em out of here."

And it wasn't until the next day that the tormenting Doughboys learned that he had captured the 132 Germans single handed and alone taken them back to the bull pen.

FAVORS A HOUSING PLAN

Harland Bartholomew, City Engineer of St. Louis, Says "Industry Follows Labor."

St. Louis, June 14.—Harland Bartholomew, engineer of the City Plan Commission, has declared himself in favor of the housing plan for the benefit of wage earners, approved at a conference of local business men at the Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday. Bartholomew says the plan is practical and if adopted, would benefit St. Louis in general and St. Louis labor in particular.

The plan contemplates the organization of an association capitalized for $1,000,000, to build and sell houses to wage earners and salaried employees on terms approximating present rental rates of similar houses. The association would be known as "The St. Louis Home Owners' Association," and the stock would be sold at popular subscription, to pay not more than 5 per cent interest.

'Labor does not follow industry any more," the city plan expert said, "but industry follows labor, and the city with the best housing conditions will get both the labor and the industry. Statistics prove that St. Louis is more fortunate than most other large cities in housing conditions. If St. Louis is made the leader in housing there will be created automatically here the best labor market in the United States."

Two plans are outlined by Bartholomew to solve the housing problem. One followed the outline suggested at the Chamber of Commerce which was for individual detached houses which would be sold to the wage earner, and the other contemplates redemption of parts of the so-called "blighted" districts by tearing down the existing buildings over areas of several blocks and erecting high class tenement or apartment houses, four room suites which would rent for $25 a month.

About Salvation Army Drive

The Salvation Army drive should have no trouble in "going across" in every state in the Union. The reason is that Soldiers from every community were overseas, and saw the work that the Salvation Army workers did and most of them are back home again, and are willing to reciprocate. There is not one soldier in a hundred who will not boost the Salvation Army above all other organizations sent overseas to help the soldiers, and none of them but are willing to give a good word for the organization. This pressure, brought to bear in every commnuity in the country, will be the means of more than raising the quota in every city, county and state.

The Salvation Army is out to do the same thing over here, as they did over there, and that means that the "under dog", the fellow who is licked or injured will be given a chance to "come back" and fight a better fight. It is the same proposition as it was over there, except that the glamour has been taken out and nothing but good hard work remains for those who will participate in the home service work. There will be little praise except in the gratitude of those helped, and the remuneration given the Salvation Army workers in the home service field is just livable. It takes a stouter man or woman to go into slums and the poorer districts and battle the elements, the wolf from the door, and even death itself, where there is no immediate reward, than to dash into the front line trenches and nurse the wounded, and feed the hungry, while all the world watches.

The money to be raised by the Salvation Army Home Service drive will be expended in the community and part of the country in which the money is raised, if needed there. For instance, some city in Northwest Missouri needs a home for the people, it must necessarily protect. Then the money will be expended for a Salvation Army home.

It is a proposition that every man faces every day on the streets of every city, or town in the country. The poor and unfortunate must be cared for, and the Salvation Army has taken a big step in launching into the home service work, in an effort to triple its pre-war work in this country.

How will the money be raised for the home service work? Every community will be asked to do its bit, as it was during the war, when the country saw it was necessary to have aid in some branch of work. The Elks Lodge of the country, through its hundreds of branches, is assisting the Salvation Army authorities in putting the drive across. The drive has been taken up in a number of states, and has yet to fail to meet its quota in any state.

Every community has an organization, and will be asked as individuals to give a small sum toward the home service work. The drive is to last a week, between June 23 and 28, and it is thought that an oversupply of funds will come from most committees Objections to donating to foreign missionary work are outruled, and the matter comes squarely home to every one when he looke to the future of America, for self preservation and for the good of his family, and sees the unfortunate element grow out of their present condition, into better men and women, who are capable of assisting this country with its burdens.

This jilted girl forcibly brought home the truth of his dastardliness to William Brown. A knife thrust made him see the point. For the first time in his life William Brown took woman seriously. THE COPS WONDERED "HOW HE GOT THAT WAY."

St. Louis, June 13.—John G. Cunningham of Point Marion, Kan., which is dry, approached Patrolman Olds, at Union Station.

"I've been robbed," he declared.

"Of what?" Olds inquired.

"My railroad ticket."

"What else?"

"Seventy-five dollars."

"What else?"

"A Belgian double-barreled shotgun."

"What else?"

"My suitcase and $80 worth of clothes."

"Where?"

"Darned if I know."

Cunningham was sent to the inebriate ward and the police wondered "how he got that way."

CHICAGO TO HAVE STADIUM

Chicago, June 13.—This city in the near future will have the largest stadium in the world.

This huge playground was assured recently when the South Park board unanimously voted to raise $1,000,000 towards defraying the expense of the "largest stadium in the world" in Grant Park. Chicago boosters got together and clinched the thing when they sent word to the board to "speed things up" as "money need be no object when it comes to putting the thing over."

Plans are being considered for a "bowl" similar to the Yale bowl, which has a seating capacity of 75,000. The proposed Chicago bowl will have a much greater seating capacity—possibly 100,000.

The modern banjo was introduced into England from America, to which country it was probably taken by the African slaves, who originally obtained the idea from India. The unmusical name "banja" seems to have been derived from "banya" the name of a Senegembian instrument of the guitar species.

JUDSON URGES HARD ROADS HERE

EXPLAINS THAT NODAWAY OUGHT "ACT QUICKLY" TO GET BENEFIT

FOLKER MAKES A TALK

Assistant Farm Agent Leader From Columbia Asks for Closer Co-Operation of Farmers—Points Out Advantages of a Leader.

H. D. Judson, of St. Joseph, Divisional Engineer of the State Highway Commission, urged that Nodaway County take advantage of the Federal aid in the building of hard roads, in an address following the dinner in his honor at the First M. E. church last night. The affair was held under the auspices of the Commercial club, and in addition to the "hard roads" address by Mr. Judson, A. D. Folker, of Columbia, Assistant Farm Agent Leader for northwest Missouri, made a talk in support of the plan and for the bet terment of the agricultural conditions of this county.

Mr. Judson explained in brief direct manner the idea of the Federal road aid. He state that the Federal government has guaranteed to "match" the amount of funds raised in counties of the state for the building of roads up to a certain figure, and that the counties which act quickly on this project and get in on the "ground floor" of the appropriation, will be afforded the best opportunity to get their full allotment of the government funds. He recommended that Nodaway county take up at once the matter of constructing two hard roads which would be placed due north and south, and one east and west through the county, explaining that such highways would come under both the state road and the federal road appropriations. Mr. Judson explained that for every mile of such state roads, $1200 is appropriated by the State of Missouri. In addition to this, the government would allow half the expense of the remaining cost, making the amount to be paid by the residents of the county $1200 minus the 50 per cent of the cost of the improvement.

Mr. Judson recommended that two million dollars be raised in this county through road bond issues for the project, and explained that according to a rough estimate, the improvement would cost approximately 31.5 cents for every acre in the county. He estimated that between 40 and 50 million dollars would be raised in Missouri during the coming year for road construction purposes, and urged upon his hearers that necessity for quick action before the sum set aside by the government for this State is taken up by other counties.

Mr. Judson dwelt strongly on the idea of the constructing the two state-Federal roads and explained that although the highways would really pass only a small percentage of the farms of the county, they would be beneficial to all in a general way.

Following his talk, Mr. Judson called for questions on the matter, and a general "round table" discussion was held in which the project was gone over from various angles.

The various angles of cost, material be suited to the needs here, and etc.

The question brought out last night was in regard to how the money was to be raised for such a project. Mr. Judson suggested several plans, among them being the issuance of road bonds by the separate townships, and another by popular subscription, similar to the Red Cross and Liberty Loan drives. He explained that in Daviess county the latter method has been employed and that the farmers there have shown their interest for the project by giving strong support in a financial way.

Chairman H. L. Raines called for a motion on the matter of taking definite steps to raise the money, but no definite proposals were made and the matter was left to some future time.

Mr. Folker, who was in Maryville yesterday for the purpose of discussing with the executive committee of the Nodaway county Farm Bureau the selection of a County Leader, gave a short address following the talk by Mr. Judson.

Mr. Folker did not take any special subject for his address but told of the importance of the farmer in the business of the country today. "The Soil [illegible] that the farm is just as much a business institution as a factory, [illegible] ant the same business methods should be employed in the former as in the latter. Mr. Folker urged co-operation among the farmers and showed that through a closer co-operation the farmer benefits both himself and his neighbor.

"Nodaway county is one of the richest agricultural counties in the great state of Missouri," he said "and although the rich lands here are making wonderful yields, co-operation and agricultural extension work will bring the standard to even a higher basis.

He urged that a County Leader be appointed here to look after the work in the same manner as a manager looks after the efficiency and newer ideas in a great business house. "He showed that fertility of the soil is the basis of the land value, and brought out that the time is coming when the value of the land here in Missouri will be measured by the actual fertility of the soil, as is now the case in the farms of the eastern states. A Farm Leader would look after this and a great variety of other things he said and urged that such a man be appointed at once.

BAD WEATHER HOLDS UP FARM BUREAU MEETING

A. D. Folker, County Farm Agent Leader, Roy Lippman and Gerald Evans Only Attendants at Session—Postpone Action.

Definite action in the matter of selecting a County Farm Leader for Nodaway County was postponed until a later meeting yesterday afternoon at the session of the executive committee of the County Farm Bureau held under the direction of A. D. Folker at the Commercial Club Rooms.

The rain and bad condition of the roads made it impossible for many of the farmers who are members of the committee to get into town, and besides Mr. Folker, Roy Lippman and Gerald Evans were the only representatives of that body present. The three men held a short discussion concerning the matter of selecting a farm leader, but took no definite steps.

Mr. Folker stated last night that a meeting would probably be held sometime during the latter part of this month to make a decision in the matter.

CHARGE LOOSE BUSINESS METHODS AT WARRENSBURG

State Examiner Criticises George E. Hoover, Registrar, for Alleged Lax Accounting System.

Jefferson City, June 14.—Sharp criticism of alleged loose business methods of keeping accounts of the State Normal School at Warrensburg are carried in a report filed in the office of State Auditor Hackman by Herman Goeschel, one of Hackman's special examiners.

The criticism is directed at George E. Hoover, registrar of the school. Goeschel says officially that there is a practical absence of bookkeeping at the Normal school for the year 1918.

This, too, he says, in face of the fact that building operations and purchase of equipment and other expenditures involved large sums of money.

Goeschel charges no wrong-doing on the part of Hoover. He simply dwells upon the lack of keeping accounts at the institution.

It is a difficult matter to conduct an audit of the school because of this, Goeschel says. He declares he called Hoover's attention to the matter and was told that Hoover was too busy with other duties to keep the accounts as they should be kept.

In his report Goeschel says:

"We have made many reports and found some records in bad condition, but this institution is one among all that has shown no improvement."

The Board of Regents is aware of the conditions existing he says, and the secretary of that body, W. H. Bradley, when attention was directed to it said he knew everything was all right.

The records of the normal school at Warrensburg, Goeschel insists in his report, are not kept as the law requires.

BANQUET FOR ALL SERVICE MEN

THE YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS OF FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO BE THE HOST

EXPECT 200 TO BE THERE

A Fine Program Has Been Arranged and Elaborate Preparations Made Class to Reorganize.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the First Christian church is making elaborate preparations for the banquet to be given in honor of all returned soldiers and sailors in Polk township at the church next Tuesday evening, June 17, at 7:30 o'clock.

Invitations have been mailed out to over 200 returned soldiers and sailors. It is possible that the committee has overlooked some to whom invitations would be mailed if their names and addresses were known and the committee wishes to announce that men that have been in military service are invited to attend the banquet.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the First Christian church is planning to reorganize the class on June 22 with, at least, seventy-five charter members. It is hoped that 125 or 150 young men will be brought into the class and an organization is to be perfected which will present matters of special interest to young men every Sunday at Electric Theater building. The banquet on next Tuesday night is only one of the many things that are being incorporated into the aims of the class.

The program for the banquet Tuesday night is as follows:

Vocal Solo—Arch Carter.

"The Soldier's Debt to the Community," Warren Breit, Dr. Bell, E. E. Williams.

SKIDMORE THE SCENE OF A TWISTER

No Damage Done Because Cloud, When Low, Passed Over Open Fields.—Rain and Hail Accompanied the Storm.

For the trird time within the past few months a tornado has visited the county, this time striking the territory lying two miles west of Skidmore. The typical funnel shaped cloud made its appearance yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock in that vicinity, coming from the southwest. In all it came down three times but very fortunately striking open fields on each of these three occasions. The cloud was said to be of perfect formation and was witnessed by many people in the vicinity of Skidmore with much fascination. As the twister wore itself out much rain and hail fell, doing considerable damage to the wheat and bluegrass in that section. No other towns in that part of the county were visited by the storm, although heavy rains fell in certain sections.

IMPORTANT ACTION AT CHURCH MEET

REV. R. E. SNODGRASS AND G. B. ROSEBERRY RETURN FROM CARTHAGE CONVENTION

SNODGRASS V. PRESIDENT

Local Men Elected to Office in State Ministerial Association.—Well Known Speakers Present.

Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor of the Christian church, and G. B. Roseberry returned last night from Carthage, Mo., where they attended the annual convention of the State Missionary Society of the Christian church of Missouri.

The meeting was one of the most important in the history of the organization and three resolutions of nation-wide importance were passed at the meet. The first action of the session was the drafting of a resolution requesting President Wilson to refrain from action to repeal the war time prohibition measure. This resolution was signed by all the delegates and was sent to Washington.

A resolution was also adopted sanctioning the League of Nations.

The third important action of the meeting was the making of preliminary plans for the raising of a two million dollar budget to finance the six educational institutions of the church in this state.

The campaign will be started this fall and each of the seven districts will be apportioned a certain definite quota in the drive.

Among the prominent speakers who occupied places on the program were Stephen J. Corey, D. D., of Cincinnati, Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society, who told of the foreign missionary work in the world reconstruction. Dr. H. O. Prichard, former president of Eureka College in Illinois, who spoke on education and the world reconstruction, and Dr. Peter Ainslee of Baltimore, Md., who spoke on the "Christian Unity."

Dr. Ainslee, is the president of the association, for the promotion of Christian unity, and is one of the pioneers of the movement to unite all churches of the Christian faith.

He told of the movement which is now on foot for a closer co-operation between the churches of the world, and of the coming convention to be held sometime within the next year.

Dr. Ainslee told the convention that the Catholic church had been invited to send representatives to this meeting but that Rome had declined the invitation.

At the Missouri Ministerial Association meeting, held in connection with the convention, W. G. Alcorn of Albany, was elected president for the ensuing year, and Rev. Snodgrass of this city, vice president.

The next annual convention of the State Missionary Society will be held at Marshall, Mo., the date to be set later.

STATE'S TEACHERS GOING ELSEWHERE

MUCH HIGHER SALARIES TAKE MISSOURI TEACHERS TO OTHER STATES

BEST QUALIFIED LEAVING

State College Recommendation Committees Unanimously Testify of General Exodus of Graduates.

Teachers trained in Missouri schools are leaving the state in great numbers for other states and , if teachers salaries are not increased soon, the better teachers of the state will soon be gone. Other states are offering salaries that are attractive and consequently getting the cream of the teachers of the state. Such is the conclusion to be drawn from investigations which have been conducted by people who are in a position to know. Recently the Evening Missourian, Columbia, Mo., sent out a questionnaire to the Teachers Colleges of Missouri, asking the following questions: (1) Do you believe that many teachers are leaving Missouri for better salaries paid in other states? (2) If so, are the more highly qualified leaving? (3) Which states are attracting teachers from your section of the state, and about what percentage of increase do they offer above Missouri salaries?

C. A. Hawkins, chairman of committee on recommendations Maryville State Teachers College expresses the opinion of all in saying, "Yes, I am very positive of it."

"I do not only believe it, I know it to be true," said C. H. McClure of the Warrensburg committee. "I am having calls every day from other states at much larger salaries than Missouri officials are offering. Of the teachers that we have located and know their location, 31 per cent were located outside of the state."

W. W. Martin of the Cape Girardeau committee says in part—"If the present condition continues, there will be in the future just as rapid an exodus of our best teachers to the other states as positions can be found for them."

"Our records show that 15 per cent of all the teachers, placed by our bureau, have gone out of the state, Oklahoma and Kansas take most of them because of 30 per cent better salaries paid there" is the statement of John H. Boyd, chairman of the committee of the Southwest Teachers College at Springfield.

The above testimony is not all that might be cited but it is sufficient to indicate the trend of things. Missouri spends thousands of dollars annually to support institutions which train teachers who practice their profession in other states. No blame can be attached to teachers for such for they can command salaries from 20 to 30 per cent higher elsewhere. The sad part of the whole thing is that Missouri has more wealth and is better able to pay the salaries than the states which offer them.

Iowa recently passed a minimum salary law for teachers which in part rules, that all graduates of colleges, universities and normal schools who have taken professional work cannot be paid less than $100.00 per month for their services and with two years experience they must be paid $120.00 per month. In other words for every years experience and training the minimum salary which they can be hired at by schools is fixed and the minimum that has been fixed is far in excess of salaries paid in Missouri. This is only one of many states that get teachers who are trained in Missouri Institutions. It is imperative for the good of Missouri schools that this state of affairs be remedied.

"HOP-OFF" IS SECOND TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHT

St. John's, June 14.—Captain Alcock, in a Vickers-Vimy bombing machine "hopped off" in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic ocean this afternoon.

A MONARCHIAL REVOLT THREATENING IN BERLIN

Soldiers Parade Streets Waving Imperial Flags and Carrying Portrait of Kaiser.

Copenhagen, June 14.—The initial demonstration of the threatening monarchial revolt in Berlin took place today when crowds of army officers and men thronged the streets waving flags, and cheering, according to dispatches here today.

The Imperial banner was raised during the parade and the portrait of the kaiser was carried aloft.

The German newspaper Vorwaerts says, "It is the first fight with the police and is the signal for a monarchial revolt."

AND NOW THEY SAY PIGS LOST THE WAR FOR 'EM

Danish Vegetarian Says the Porkers Were the Real Cause of the Downfall of the Fatherland.

London. —(By Mail).— Ludendorff maintains it was the revolutionary spirit of the German soldiers that caused Germany's defeat, Admiral Beatty says it was the British navy, General Pershing thinks it was the American army, while armchair strategists declare it was Foch's great offensive.

But, really, Germany was defeated because she had too many pigs, says Doctor M. Hindhede, the distinguished Danish vegetarian.

The German pig betrayed the Fatherland and contributed more to the downfall of Germany than the Allies' blockade.

At the outbreak of war, the food situation was more serious in Denmark than in Germany. Denmark, however, reduced the number of her pigs and cattle, thereby restricting the consumption of cereals in the country.

Germany, on the other hand [illegible] of reducing the number of her pigs and cattle forbade the slaughtering of cattle under seven years old, and of pigs less thana sixty kilos in weight. No restrictions were put on feeding them with cereals.

By the spring of 1915 there was scarcely a potato left in Germany.

So Germany starved while Denmark throve, and the pigs that were intended to save the Fatherland ate the food so urgently needed by her populationo.

That is why Germany lost the war.

Rooster Selling Contest.

Perryville merchants are conducting a Rooster Selling Contest as one of the features of the drive to secure infertile eggs. A cash prize of $5.00 is being offered to the person who brings in the largest number of roosters during the Rooster Week. "Every bunch of roosters will be carefully counted," says Alfred Raut, County Agent of Perry County; but he adds significantly, "No questions will be asked." Lively competition is likely to develop between the various ladies aid societies of the county to see which can round up the biggest load of roosters to compete for the prize. The indications are that country ministers who have been in the habit of expecting rooster for dinner on their visit to country church members will have to be satisfied with sausage or ham after this drive is finished.

"BIG FOUR" DENIES HUN DISCUSSION

ALLIES FLATLY REFSE TO ARBITRATE WITH GERMANS ON TERMS

WILSON UPHOLDS STAND

President Declares That as the Germans Were the Instigators of War They Must Abide by Penalties.

Paris, June 14.—Proposals that the Germans be permitted to discuss the peace terms with the Allied representatives were flatly denied at th meting of th "Big Four" today.

President Wilson and other members of the "Big Four" declared that as a complete agreement had been reached by the Allies there was no use for further bargaining by the Germans.

The president declared on the part of the United States that the terms are just, and as the Germans were the instigators of the war they should be forced to abide by the consequences.

With the bargaining on the terms finished by the Allies, President Wilson is of the opinion that the Germans must either accept or reject the treaty as it stands.

If it is rejected they must suffer the drastic action of the Allied powers.

TO DISCUSS REHABITATION OF TUBERCULAR CIVILIANS

100,000 Men Rejected From Service Because of Trace of the Disease.

Atlantic City, June 14.—With draft board records showing that nearly 100,000 men were rejected for the army because of suspected tuberculosis, the rehabitation of civilians disabled by the disease will be discussed here next Monday by Douglas C. McMurtie, director of the Red Cross Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men, before the annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The programme of the Federal Board for Vocational Education will be discussed by Dr. H. A. Pattison, while some of the results gained by use of occupational therapy and prevocational training among tuberculous men in the army will be reported by Captain S. M. North, chief of the reconstruction service, at General Hospital No. 19, Oteen, N. C.

The responsibility which the Government has assured with regard to the discharged tuberculous soldier and what Uncle Sam proposes to do for these patients, will be outlined by William C. Baldwin, Washington.

A feature of tomorrow's programme will be an address on the growth of the modern health crusade in this country during the war years by Charles M. DeForest, national crusader executive. Under the banner of this crusade more than 3,000,000 school children have been enlisted in health chivalry.

$20,000 WORTH OF BOOZE TO STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Justice C. W. Stuart of Clarinda has certified to the County Clerk George Anderson the amount of booze now in the county jail, in charge of Sheriff Pennington. The total amount which Justice Stuart has condemned since the first of the year amounts to 5322 pints. The County Clerk will now notify the State Board of Control in Des Moines in accordance with the law passed last winter by the State legislature which makes the State Board of Control the custodian of such liquor, with the object in view of supplying the state institutions with such liquor as they need for medical purposes. The whiskey is now locked inside a cell at the Page County jail.

5322 pints of whiskey, at $4 a pint would make $21,288 worth of whiskey confisticated by the state. It would sell for $4 a pint in Omaha, where the men who originally had the booze intended to take it. But whether on the market it is worth that much is something we are unable to determine. —Clarinda Herald.

PROPAGANDISTS IN MEXICO ARE AFTER CARRANZA.

Laredo, Texas, June 13.—According to information given out by an American business man just returned from a tour of various cities of Mexico, that country is now in a very perturbed state and there is much unrest manifested in such cities as Mexico City, Vera Cruz, Guadalajara, Queretero and Torreon, where the revolutionary movement is gradually gaining ground. Propagandists against the Carranza government are said to be working diligently to create sympathy for the revolutionary cause among Federal troops, and the effect has been that there have been many deflections from the Carranza army to that of Felix Diaz. It is said that secret meetings are being held in various portions of Mexico almost nightly, and under some clever camouflage the "junta" managers manage to keep the Mexican government in ignorance of their clandestine workings Felix Diaz, who has beenunsatisfied ever since the overthrow of the Porfirio Diaz Government by Madero, is still the acknowledged leader of the Mexican revolutionists and he is said to be gaining converts to his cause slowly but surely. While Pancho Villa and his forces are menacing the northern portion of Mexico and terrorizing the inhabitants, the Diaz forces, operating in Central Mexico and even in the capital, it is said, are quietly spreading their propaganda and strengthening the revolutionary cause.

KISSES 11 MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY AT EACH MEAL.

San Francisco, June 13.—Kissing and its relation to general family contentment was the subject of a symposiae discussion before Superior Judge Shortall during the hearing of Mrs. Isabel Dugan's divorce action against Herbert F. Dugan, manufacturing chemist.

Miss Adele Dugan, sister of the defendant, testified that her sister-in-law was extremely jealous of kisses bestowed on Miss Dugan by the latter's brother each evening when he came home.

"Isn't that a good way to treat a sister," asked Judge Shortall.

Thomas Dozier, attorney for Mrs. Dugan, said: "I myself prefer the kiss of my wife to wine before dinner."

This drew from Lucius Solomon, attorney for Dugan, the remark:

"There are eleven females in my family. Before sitting down to the supper table I make the rounds. And the meal tastes better."

EGGS HAVE WAIST LINES.

Los Angeles, June 11.—Eggs are wearing waist lines this summer! Old hens are getting classy in the matter of style.

Mrs. F. S. Evans, of No. 1411 Woodside avenue, Graham, partly proved this by bringing to the Chamber of Commerce here an egg with a perfect belt around the middle of its shell The belt was drawn slightly in, but was without a buckle. The old Rhode Island hen that laid the egg first started her novelties by producing eggs with two yolks.

YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG
(By Wilbur D. Nesbit.)

Your flag and my flag!
And how it flies today
In your land and my land
And half a world away!
Rose red and blood red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow white and soul white—
The good forefather's dream.
Sky blue and true blue, with stars to gleam aright—
The glorious guidon by day; a shelter through the night.
Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat,
And fifers shrilly pipe.
Your flag and my flag—
A blessing in the sky—
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie.
Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute and ripples to the sound.
Your flag and my flag.
And, oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun kissed and wind tossed—
Red and blue and white,
The one flag, the great flag, the flag for me and you,
Glorifies all else beside—the red and white and blue!

ST. LOUIS TO RAISE $90,000 IN SCOUT DRIVE

Will Continue Campaign Until Full Quota is Raised—Mayor Keil Issues Appeal.

St. Louis, June 14.—The campaign to raise $90,000 for work of Boy Scouts in this city will be continued until that amount is raised, it is announced by leaders of the campaign.

Mayor Kiel in an effort to stimulate interest has issued the following appeal:

"The president of the United States has issued a proclamation setting aside the period beginning Sunday, June 8 and ending Flag Day, June 14, as Boy Scout Week during which a nation-wide appeal will be made to all Americans to assist the Boy Scouts of America in furthering the splendid work which this organization has accomplished in the past.

"The Boy Scouts have done a most wonderful work in assisting the government and city of St. Louis in all movements having for their object the winning of the world war. In addition they have rendered invaluable assistance in a civic way for many years.

"We should give every encouragement to these boys and assist them in every way possible to build up and strengthen their organization. The St. Louis campaign for additional members will be a three-day one beginning on June 10 and ending on June 12.

"I trust that every citizen will aid in this movement which has as its object the organizing, training and discipling of the boyhood of the United States."

Any standard cord of well-seasoned hickory, oak, beech, birch, hard maple, ash, elm, locust or cherry wood is approximately equal to one ton of anthracite coal. A cord and a half of soft maple or two cords of cedar, poplar or bass wood are required to give the same amount of heat. One cord of well seasoned mixed wood equals at least one ton of average grade bituminous coal.

The New School Legislation

County Superintendent of Schools Bert Cooper has received the following letter explaining the high spots of the school legislation enacted at the recent 50th General Assembly. All of the important measures are touched upon.

Senate Bill No. 398, provides for an increase in salary of 50 per cent for County Superintendents throughout the State of Missouri. This bill was signed by the Governor on March 28, and carried an emergency clause, therefore it was in effect at the time of the election of the County Superintendents on April 1.

Senate Bill No. 599. Passed and signed at the same time as No. 324. This bill affects St. Louis County only, and fixes the salary of the County Superintendent there at $4,000 per year.

Senate Bill No. 17. This is the new Compulsory Attendance Law. It provides that every child between the ages of seven and fourteen shall attend school regularly for the entire term, and between the ages of fourteen and sixteen they must attend unless actually and regularly and lawfully engaged for at least six hours each day in some useful employment or service. As a means of enforcement, this law provides for a County Attendance Officer being selected by the County Superintendent of Schools, placed under a bond of $1,000 and being paid a salary not to exceed $4.00 per day for each day actually engaged in the discharge of his duties and his actual expenses incurred. This Attendance Officer is appointed for the entire county and has authority to arrest and place in school, children who are not in attendance. He may bring action against the parent or guardian in any court of competent jurisprudence. Only children mentally or physically incapacitated or who have completed the common school course and received certificates of graduation are exempt. Teachers shall report non-attendance direct to the County Superintendent. Boards of education in towns and cities may employ separate School Attendance Officers and pay them from funds of the district; otherwise the County Attendance Officer will act in these districts.

This is considered one of the best compulsory attendance laws in any of the states, and we see no reason why this should not greatly increase the attendance in the State, as it is made the duty of the State Department of Education and of all school officials as well, to enforce this law.

Senate Bill No. 335 provides for the apportionment of school funds upon the basis of the previous year's attendance in case of an epidemic, such as has existed this year. Instructions are going forward to county clerks and county superintendents as to the method of carrying out the provisions of this law.

House Bill No. 370, provides the necessary appropriation for carrying out the Smith-Hughes Act, establishing Vocational schools.

House Bill No. 571, provides for part time schools to be established in any districts in the State wherein there shall be issued and in full force and effect not less than twenty-five employment certificates for children under sixteen years of age. This bill provides that such children shall attend these part time classes for not less than four hours per week for so long as the schools are regularly in session in such districts. When such schaals shall have met the standards of the Federal Act and the standard established by the State Board for Vocational Education, they shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the Federal funds available under the provisions of the Federal Act. The Compulsory Attendance Law applies to part time schools.

Senate Bill No. 398, provides for the inspection and approval by the State University of certain colleges of liberal arts and other colleges including junior colleges and colleges preparatory to any college or any junior college and provides further, that the preparatory department may appeal to the State Department of Education in cases where the State University refuses to approve.

House Bill No. 55, provides for the supervision of the work of instruction in certain State Institutions by the State Superintendent of Public Schools

Senate Bill No. 449, provides for the legal creation of the existing Negro Industrial Commission.

House Bill No. 414 permits the State Superintendent of Schools to pay to the Teacher-Trainnig Inspector in the State Department a maximum salary not to exceed $2,500 per year.

House Bill No. 391 amends Section 10797, Revised School Laws, pertaining to tax levy for erecting school houses by adding the following provision, namely, "when the proposition to be voted on refers only to repair or furnishing, or both repairs and furnishing such school building, the proposition shall be deemed to have been carried at the election if a majority of votes cast are cast in favor of the proposition."

Senate Bills Nos. 378 and 482, provide for the payment of tuition for children attending high school outside of the district in which they reside, in certain counties having a population of eighty thousand or more, and two hundred and fifty thousand or more respectively.

House Bill No. 1009, provides for an appeal from the decision of the County Superintendent to the Judge of the Circuit Court in cases of revoking certificates.

House Bill No. 48, provides for establishing schools in any school district, under certain conditions, for children who are blind, deaf, crippled or feeble-minded.

Joint and Concurrent Resolution No. 18, provides for the submission of a constitutional amendment at the next general election, allowing rural districts to vote $1.00 for school purposes on precisely the same conditions that cities may now vote $1.00.

Under the provisions of House Bill No. 1071, the general apportionment bill, the State Department of Education was given additional help in the way of two Rural School Inspectors, and an addition to the clerical force. This, we feel, will be of material assistance to us in carrying out the work of this department.

Below are a number of bills pertaining to education, which failed of passage:

House Bill No. 337, providing for raising the qualifications of county superintendents of schools.

Senate Bill No. 713, providing for free text books for all schools of the State.

Senate Bills Nos. 70 and 288, requiring that all instruction in the elementary schools be given in the English languarge.

House Bill No. 807, raising the maximum salaries and valuation in rural districts applying for State Aid. The State Aid Law remains as it was before the Legislature met.

Senate Bill No. 480. This bill amended Section 10944, by making definite the disposition of any balance from examination fees, etc., remaining in the hands of county superintendents afte the payment of expenses of teachers' association, teachers' meetings, etc.

Senate Bill No. 640, provides for the establishment of a system of physical education and hygiene throughout the State.

House Bill No. 871. This bill provides for the County Unit System of administration throughout the State. It excited a great deal of interest and was endorsed by the Educational Committees of both Houses, and for a time seemed sure of passage. However it was a rather radical departure from the old order of things, and some of the members became scared, evidently for this reason alone. This bill should easily be put through the next legislature.

Senate Bill No. 690 empowered the Board of Education in school districts having a popuation of twenty-five thou sand inhabitants or more, to require a physical and mental examination of all children attending the public schools.

In addition to the above mentioned bills, a bill requiring common school districts to pay high school tuition where no high school is provided in their district, failed of passage, as did a bill empowering Boards of Education of a city or town to elect a superintendent for a term of years.

Nothwithstanding the fact that some of the best bills, as we see them, failed of passage, yet we feel gratified with the results secured. Perhaps more real progressive school legislation has been enacted by this General Assembly than by any previous session of recent years.

THREE CLAIM THE GIRL WHO IS WITHOUT A HOME

Rock Island, Ill., June 13—Who should receive the custody of pretty Miss Carmela Agnes Pines, aged fourteen years—her father, grandfather or stepfather?

This question is puzzling a judge of the circuit court here.

All three claim the girl and have filed suits to support the claim.

The case is a singular one. Mr. Pines was divorced from his wife, who was given the custody of the child and later remarried. She died recently. The stepfather sought the guardianship of the girl, but this was denied on the modification of the divorce decree granted her father. Then the grandparents on the mother's side stepped in and also wanted the child. It developed into a wrangle in many courts of Cook county, Ill., and Des Moines, Iowa, being finally brought here.

The case is expected to be taken to the supreme court of the state and possibly to the United States Supreme Court.

Capt. Will Wallis Has Landed.

Captain Will Wallis, Jr., arrived at Camp Hill, Va., yesterday from France, according to word received by his brother, Dr. F. C. Wallis, last evening. He is expected to go to Camp Grant, where he will receive his discharge.

MISSOURI UNIVERSITY SHORT COURSE IN ARICULTURE

It is expected that there will be a very large enrollment in the Two Year Winter Course this year, and plans are being made to make the course this year stronger than it has been in the past, according to E. H. Hughes, Superintendent of the Short Course. Many who would have entered the past two years are deciding to come this fall. Still others who have taken part of the work will return to complete the course.

Students who have taken work in the Short Course are very enthusiastic about it. Few people in Missouri realize what the Short Course is and what it means to have men from their community take up this work.

The Two-year Winter Course was organized at the University of Missouri in 1895. At that time there were but few students enrolled and Dean Mumford was the only instructor. The course has been changed considerably since that time until now it covers a period of two winters beginning on or about November First and closing on or before March First. Practically all the Experiment Station staff are instructors in the Short course and it becomes necessary at times to have additional instructors during the time the Short Course students are here.

Some of the subjects that are taught in the Short Course are live stock production, fertilization of soils, production of pure bred seed, farm machinery with special emphasis on gas engines and tractors, dairy manufacturing, production of high class milk, vegetable gardening, various courses in horticulture rural economics, banking and agricultural law. These are only a few of the many things that are taught Short Course men and women.

During the fall there is a Short Course in Home Economics given for those students who are interested in learning more about present day millinery, clothing problems, cooking, home decoration, etc.

After Christmas is a special course given in Dairy Manufacturing. Students taking this course become creamery operators, managers of milk distributing plants, ice cream manufacturers, etc.

PREVENTING AUTO ACCIDENTS

St. Louis, June 14.—An outline of how the recently organized Automobile Vigilance Division of the Safety Council of St. Louis is progressing in its work to reduce the number of preventable accidents is given by Edward G. Marsh, secretary of the Complaint Board and also secretary of the vigilance body.

The vigilantes have caused 100 complaints of reckless or careless driving by motor car drivers to be investigated since April 1 and in no instance has a second complaint against the same party been received. Marsh specifies this fact as proof that the work of the organization is effective. The policy is not to prosecute each driver of a car who inadvertantly may violate legal regulations, but rather, to make a personal appeal to obtain the desired result.

LOT'S TROUBLES STARTED AS HE ENTERED POLITICS

St. Louis, June 10.—The troubles of Lot, of Biblical fame, began when he went into politics, according to Herbert Hoover Smith, pastor of Emanuel Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, speaking before the Salesmanship Club here.

"Lot's first misstep came when he moved into the Cabanne district of Sodom and Mrs. Lot started to get her picture in the Sunday papers," he said. "Someone then told Lot he could be elected alderman and that proved the beginning of the end for that family.

"Mrs Lot became so enamored of the people of Sodom that she could not leave the city without the delay of several lingering parting glances. The result you know."

KUCHS BROTHERS

YANKS GIVE YORK HERO THE "RAZ"—LATER SORRY

When "War's Greatest Hero" Brought in 132 Captives, His Buddies Tried to "Kid" Him.

Pittsburgh, June 14.—How Sergeant Alvin C. York, the greatest hero in the A. E. F., was "razberried" by other men in his division when he brought in his 132 captive Germans, which he had taken single handed, was told here by two men who were in York's unit.

The Tennessean and his prisoners ran into the kitchen police first.

"Say, Sarge, ain't you afraid them Heinies will git away?" was the first shot directed at York by the hecklers.

"Nope, reckon not," was the reply.

"How come? They's a posel of wessels there. Might run off an' leave you."

"They did try to do that an' fourteen of them got killed or they'd be more."

"Yeh. I guess you did bump off four teen. You ketched 'em all yourself, I suppose?" put in an incredulous cook.

"Yep," came back York.

"Wow. Say Jerry, listen to this. This guy ketched all them Boches by himself. Great kid, eh?"

The loafing soldiers then clustered around York.

"Where's the Kaiser?" asked one. "You ain't much good in bringing in all them common bums. Why'n't you git a couple of good ones while you're at it?

"You better gittouta here," said another. "You'll catch hell for being A. W. O. L. That's no way to act—trying to get back to the rear with them prisoners. Where's their guard?"

York began to get mad.

"Say, give them something to eat, will you? An' I'll take 'em out of here."

And it wasn't until the next day that the tormenting Doughboys learned that he had captured the 132 Germans single handed and alone taken them back to the bull pen.

FAVORS A HOUSING PLAN

Harland Bartholomew, City Engineer of St. Louis, Says "Industry Follows Labor."

St. Louis, June 14.—Harland Bartholomew, engineer of the City Plan Commission, has declared himself in favor of the housing plan for the benefit of wage earners, approved at a conference of local business men at the Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday. Bartholomew says the plan is practical and if adopted, would benefit St. Louis in general and St. Louis labor in particular.

The plan contemplates the organization of an association capitalized for $1,000,000, to build and sell houses to wage earners and salaried employees on terms approximating present rental rates of similar houses. The association would be known as "The St. Louis Home Owners' Association," and the stock would be sold at popular subscription, to pay not more than 5 per cent interest.

"Labor does not follow industry any more," the city plan expert said, "but industry follows labor, and the city with the best housing conditions will get both the labor and the industry. Statistics prove that St. Louis is more fortunate than most other large cities in housing conditions. If St. Louis is made the leader in housing there will be created automatically here the best labor market in the United States."

Two plans are outlined by Bartholomew to solve the housing problem. One followed the outline suggested at the Chamber of Commerce which was for individual detached houses which would be sold to the wage earner, and the other contemplates redemption of parts of the so-called "blighted" districts by tearing down the existing buildings over areas of several blocks and erecting high class tenement or apartment houses, four room suites which would rent for $25 a month.

About Salvation Army Drive

The Salvation Army drive should have no trouble in "going across" in every state in the Union. The reason is that Soldiers from every community were overseas, and saw the work that the Salvation Army workers did and most of them are back home again, and are willing to reciprocate. There is not one soldier in a hundred who will not boost the Salvation Army above all other organizations sent overseas to help the soldiers, and none of them but are willing to give a good word for the organization. This pressure, brought to bear in every commnuity in the country, will be the means of more than raising the quota in every city, county and state.

The Salvation Army is out to do the same thing over here, as they did over there, and that means that the "under dog", the fellow who is licked or injured will be given a chance to "come back" and fight a better fight. It is the same proposition as it was over there, except that the glamour has been taken out and nothing but good hard work remains for those who will participate in the home service work. There will be little praise except in the gratitude of those helped, and the remuneration given the Salvation Army workers in the home service field is just livable. It takes a stouter man or woman to go into slums and the poorer districts and battle the elements, the wolf from the door, and even death itself, where there is no immediate reward, than to dash into the front line trenches and nurse the wounded, and feed the hungry, while all the world watches.

The money to be raised by the Salvation Army Home Service drive will be expended in the community and part of the country in which the money is raised, if needed there. For instance, some city in Northwest Missouri needs a home for the people, it must necessarily protect. Then the money will be expended for a Salvation Army home.

It is a proposition that every man faces every day on the streets of every city, or town in the country. The poor and unfortunate must be cared for, and the Salvation Army has taken a big step in launching into the home service work, in an effort to triple its pre-war work in this country.

How will the money be raised for the home service work? Every community will be asked to do its bit, as it was during the war, when the country saw it was necessary to have aid in some branch of work. The Elks Lodge of the country, through its hundreds of branches, is assisting the Salvation Army authorities in putting the drive across. The drive has been taken up in a number of states, and has yet to fail to meet its quota in any state.

Every community has an organization, and will be asked as individuals to give a small sum toward the home service work. The drive is to last a week, between June 23 and 28, and it is thought that an oversupply of funds will come from most committees. Objections to donating to foreign missionary work are outruled, and the matter comes squarely home to every one when he looke to the future of America, for self preservation and for the good of his family, and sees the unfortunate element grow out of their present condition, into better men and women, who are capable of assisting this country with its burdens.

This jilted girl forcibly brought home the truth of his dastardliness to William Brown. A knife thrust made him see the point. For the first time in his life William Brown took woman seriously. See "From Headquarters" for the biggest thrill on the screens at Electric Theatre, Monday and Tuesday. —dv.

Mrs. Walter McClelland of Kirksville, who has been visiting in Skidmore with her parents, will leave tomorrow for Pattonsburg, accompanied by her sister, Miss Meredith Stevens, who will spend her two weeks' vacation there.

THE COPS WONDERED "HOW HE GOT THAT WAY."

St. Louis, June 13.—John G. Cunningham of Point Marion, Kan., which is dry, approached Patrolman Olds, at Union Station.

"I've been robbed," he declared.

"Of what?" Olds inquired.

"My railroad ticket."

"What else?"

"Seventy-five dollars."

"What else?"

"A Belgian double-barreled shotgun."

"What else?"

"My suitcase and $80 worth of clothes."

"Where?"

"Darned if I know."

Cunningham was sent to the inebriate ward and the police wondered "how he got that way."

CHICAGO TO HAVE STADIUM

Chicago, June 13.—This city in the near future will have the largest stadium in the world.

This huge playground was assured recently when the South Park board unanimously voted to raise $1,000,000 towards defraying the expense of the "largest stadium in the world" in Grant Park. Chicago boosters got together and clinched the thing when they sent word to the board to "speed things up" as "money need be no object when it comes to putting the thing over."

Plans are being considered for a "bowl" similar to the Yale bowl, which has a seating capacity of 75,000. The proposed Chicago bowl will have a much greater seating capacity—possibly 100,000.

The modern banjo was introduced into England from America, to which country it was probably taken by the African slaves, who originally obtained the idea from India. The unmusical name "banja" seems to have been derived from "banya" the name of a Senegembian instrument of the guitar species.
